§ 110-1. Fighting or riotous demonstration.

No person shall make any disturbance or indulge in any fighting, brawling or riotous demonstration on or near any public or private street or place within the village.

§ 110-2. Disturbing public gatherings.

No person shall in any manner disturb, molest or interrupt any of the persons composing any lawful meeting, congregation, audience or other public gathering or any school, society or association, either while so assembled or while going to or returning from the same.

§ 110-3. Obstructing passage of persons or vehicles.

Persons shall not unnecessarily congregate on the sidewalks, street corners or streets so as to obstruct the free and uninterrupted passing of any person or persons or vehicles.

§ 110-4. Noise.

No person shall at any time make or contribute to the making of any unnecessary, loud or unusual noise.¹

§ 110-5. Obscene language or conduct.

No person shall use or engage in any profane, vulgar or obscene language or conduct in or upon any public street or public place or within any building so that such language or conduct can be heard or seen by any person not within such building.²

§ 110-6. Malicious destruction of property.

No person shall maliciously or willfully break, tear, injure or in any way deface any building, fence, lamppost, lamp, electric light pole or telephone pole, sign, signal post, traffic sign, traffic light, board, tree, shrubbery, fountain or other ornamental thing in the village, and no person shall tear down or mutilate any notice, sign or handbill lawfully posted in the village.

§ 110-7. Injury to or unlawful use of village property.

No person shall injure or destroy any village property or take or use any of the same without first obtaining the consent of the Mayor or Village Clerk.³

§ 110-8. Placing destructive objects on sidewalks or streets.

No person shall drop, throw or place any wire, bottles, glass or other sharp, destructive or dangerous things on the sidewalks or in the streets of the village.

§ 110-9. Interfering with officers.

No person shall interfere with any officer, inspector or other person or persons appointed to carry out the provisions of the ordinances of the village, while they are engaged in carrying out the same.

§ 110-10. Marking streets or sidewalks; damaging thoroughfares under construction.

No person shall make any marks with paint or otherwise on any sidewalk, crosswalk or street of the village without the consent of the Mayor or Village Clerk, and no person shall willfully
